I can't begin to tell you how much I appreciated your thoughtful letter. I'm so glad that a voice from the past has been brought up to the present!

And how kind and thoughtful of you to cite some advice I gave you at the Academy. I am flattered that you found it helpful, and I am grateful for your reminder of it to me now as I approach this new challenge.

Your letter was heartwarming and so supportive. Thank you again for it. Best wishes.
